

Gun-Related Deaths in U.S. Set to Pass Auto Fatalities

The number of people killed by firearms in the U.S. is projected to exceed traffic fatalities for the first time by 2015.

Deaths caused by: — Motor vehicles — Firearms

Notes: Projected data from 2011 to 2015 based on 10-year average growth rate or decline. Firearm fatalities include homicides, suicides and accidents.

Source: Centers for Disease Control and Prevention data compiled by Bloomberg

Graphic: Alex Tribou
BGOVgraphics@bloomberg.com

Bloomberg
GOVERNMENT