

From Rome to Beijing: Sacred Spaces in Dialogue

A symposium on the history of art, science, and religion in Jesuit China

4 May 2018 (Friday)
Schermerhorn Hall 612
Columbia University

10 am - 4:30 pm
Reception to follow

The event is free and open to the public

Speakers:

Florence Hsia (University of Wisconsin Madison)
Kristina Kleutghen (University of Washington, St. Louis)
Walter Melion (Emory University)
Eugenio Menegon (Boston University)
Jeffrey Muller (Brown University)

Organizers:

Daniel Greenberg and Mari Yoko Hara
Andrew Mellon Postdoctoral Fellows in the Department of Art History & Archaeology

Sponsors:

Departments of Art History & Archaeology, Italian, Religion, East Asian Languages & Culture

THE CENTER FOR SCIENCE & SOCIETY
AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY
Weatherhead East Asian Institute

