

BU WOMEN'S WATER POLO

FALL 2016 NEWSLETTER

Season's Greetings . . .

2016 has come to an end and now our spring season is just around the corner. Our cheetahs had an eventful and productive pre-season. In September we successfully recruited a lot of new talent, ranging in water polo and swimming experience levels. We are lucky to have found some enthusiastic and quick-learning additions to our polo family. Teaching and team development have been bolstered thanks to the coaching efforts of Adrienne Ingalla and Sean Hughes. Their water-polo wisdom is always an enormous help, especially as we transition into the competitive season. New head coach Konrad Szupinski, who previously coached the men's team, will carry on where they left off and we could not be more excited.

Out of the pool we've had some great team bonding experiences. We showed our support for Hub on Wheels and helped hand out refreshments to the cyclists participating in the event. The cheetahs also tried some outdoor recreation with a (hopefully now annual) Halloween Kickball Game. The men's team came out and joined us, and we believe it's safe to say our skills are best suited for a more aquatic setting.

We've been blessed to have a group of strong, dedicated, and talented girls to take on 2017. We hope that this New Year will bring another successful season for BU Women's Water Polo!

Looking Forward ...
