

Session Submission Summary

Sources of Conflict: Territory and Technology Fri, September 1, 10:00 to 11:30am, TBA

Session Submission Type: Full Panel

Session Description

These papers explore factors leading to inter-state conflict, ranging from traditional issues of disputed territory to non-military forms of conflict based in technological competition.

Sub Unit

DIVISION 19: INTERNATIONAL SECURITY AND ARMS CONTROL

Individual Submissions

China's Industrial Espionage and the Escalation of the US-China IP Conflict - June Park, National University of Singapore, junepark@bu.edu

Game of Drones: The Effect of Technology on Conflict Onset and Initiation - Erik Lin-Greenberg, Columbia University, elingreenberg@gmail.com

Long War in the East? Prospects for a Protracted U.S.-China Conflict - Joshua Rovner, Southern Methodist University, jrovner@smu.edu

The Long Arm of History: Border Changes, Ethnic Ties and Territorial Conflict - Guy Schvitz, ETH, guy.schvitz@gess.ethz.ch

Chair

Guy Schvitz ETH, guy.schvitz@gess.ethz.ch

Discussant

Joshua Rovner Southern Methodist University, jrovner@smu.edu

Copyright©2017 All Academic, Inc.