

Boston University School of Theology
Student Association
Meeting - 13 May 11:19 am
Attendees: Dan Kim, Soren Hessler, Insung Ko, Debbie Brubaker

Approved Changes and Proposals:

The elected officers of Boston University Theological Students Association, in a meeting on the 13 May, 2010, voted to change the official name of the organization from Boston University Theological Students Association to School of Theology Student Association.

The elected officers of the School of Theology Student Association, in a meeting on May 13, 2010, voted to approve Vice President, Soren Hessler, to serve as acting Treasurer from May 13, 2010 to September 1, 2010.

The elected officers of the School of Theology Student Association, in a meeting on May 13, 2010, voted to approve funds, not to exceed $100, to facilitate the name/email change, and to procure nametags for the executive board.

Discussion:

- 1) The elected officers discussed the need for student representation on all faculty committees at the School of Theology. Proposal for a method of electing or appointing representatives will be discussed when the STH community reconvenes in September, 2010.
- 2) The elected officers discussed the need for revising the STH student association constitution, based on the needs and concerns voiced by the student community in May, 2010. Soren to review constitution over summer holiday, and conversation with student body to be initiated at meeting in September, 2010.