Greg Marinovich, a Pulitzer Prize-winning photographer and co-author of The Bang Bang Club, a book on South Africa’s transition to democracy, will give the keynote speech at the New England Scholastic Press Association conference Friday, May 1.

In his speech, he will discuss how being born into a great historical epoch pushed him into journalism and then photography.

He will talk about apartheid in South Africa and what it meant to be a citizen in troubled times. He will also talk about choosing to be involved, both as a citizen and as a storyteller.

Marinovich, a Nieman Fellow at Harvard last year and now an adjunct professor at the College of Communication, has said that crisis can be “great for journalism and bad for our souls.”

Marinovich has also made television documentaries in countries from Afghanistan to Cameroon. He is a co-founder of a start-up photographic agency.

With the doors opening at 8, sessions at the conference will be from 9 until 2:30 at Boston University’s College of Communication, 640 Commonwealth Ave., Boston.

Students, teachers, Boston University faculty and media specialists will share information with the aim of supporting excellence in scholastic journalism.

Also at the conference, delegates will find panels, exhibits, round-tables and workshops where they can learn about the latest trends, and share concerns and ideas.

Special Achievement Contests

The NESPA Special Achievement Awards reward excellent individual work and teamwork in New England's secondary school media.

Judges include faculty of the Boston University College of Communication. Those entries evaluated as “outstanding” in the categories noted here will receive NESPA Special Achievement Award certificates.

Entries must have been broadcast or published in print and/or online between April 5, 2014 and April 3, 2015. DEADLINE for receipt of entries at the College of Communication: April 3, 2015.

Preparation of entries: Send URL address, or complete page, un-mounted tear sheet on which each entry appears.

Tape a filled out copy of the entry form to the upper right corner of the back of each print entry.

Each broadcast entry must be accompanied by appropriate script and essential program credit information. Enclose Special Achievement fee and forms with your entries. Fill out forms in full.

Send entries to NESPA, Helen F. Smith, Boston University, College of Communication, 640 Commonwealth Ave., Boston, Mass., 02215. Submit URL to blogs.bu.edu/nespa. Make sure your submissions remain live on your site through May 1, 2015.

Special Achievement Contests entry form
Publications and Productions Contests

NESPA Publications and Productions Contests are open to all school publications and broadcasts, both NESPA members and non-members.

Awards will be given to broadcast (audio and video) productions, and to magazines, newspapers, yearbooks, online/print and online publications.

All broadcasts and publications are evaluated and rated individually. Those receiving a Highest Achievement rating in Scholastic Editing and Publishing become eligible for first, second and third place All-New England certificates in the following size categories, using grades 9-12:

- Class I: 1,000 or more students
- Class II: 700-999 students
- Class III: 400-699 students
- Class IV: fewer than 400 students.

Entry information:

- Broadcasts: please submit audio and video productions of the 2014-2015 school year, plus any one or two from January, 2014 - June, 2014.
- Magazines: submit all 2014-2015 school year issues.
- Newspapers: submit all 2014-2015 issues plus any two from January, 2014-June, 2014.
- Online/print and online: submit URL. Please make sure that your September, 2014 to April 3, 2015 material remains live on your site through May 1, 2015. To qualify as online/print hybrid, your site must include multi media, not pdfs only. Judges will consider only entries with working URLs. Submit URL to blogs.bu.edu/nespa.
- Yearbooks: submit 2015 edition.

Please include $5.00 for postage and handling for each entry you want returned. You MUST note which entry(ies) you wish returned.

Entry fee: None for NESPA members’ single entry ($15 each for more); $15 per broadcast or publication entry for non-members.

Entry deadline: April 3, 2015.

Please make a copy of this form for each publication in a different category and send same with each contest entry. Fill out in full.
