

Mission Records as Method: Towards a Microhistory of Global China A Virtual Workshop with Dr. Eugenio Menegon

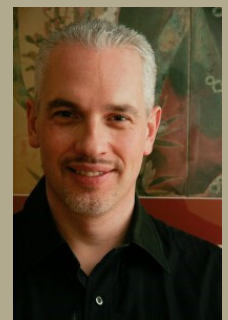

Can the historical experiences of European missionaries and local Christians help reveal new facets of life in a China increasingly connected globally? Join us as Eugenio Menegon reflects on the methods of "global micro-history" as a way to explore globalization and the connections between China and the world.

To facilitate engagement, attendants are encouraged to read Menegon's 2020 article, "Telescope and Microscope. A Micro-historical Approach to Global China in the Eighteenth Century." Please scan QR code to access article.

Thursday, July 30, 2020
Eastern Time (US and Canada)
3:30 PM - 5:00 PM

Dr. Eugenio Menegon
Associate Professor of Chinese and World History
Department of History, Boston University

Join Zoom Meeting:

<https://duke.zoom.us/j/4120107408?pwd=UGQ5WW1xT0NOM1NvMWIWRIBIOVFoZz09>

Meeting ID: 412 010 7408

Passcode: 954084

